

Your Rights Under Title VI Of the Civil Rights Act of 1964

Title VI is a section of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 requiring that “No person in the United States shall, on the grounds of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.” Note that Title VI does not address gender discrimination. It only covers race, color and national origin. Other Civil Rights laws prohibit gender discrimination.

Any person who feels that he or she, individually or as a member of any class of persons, on the basis of race, color, or national origin has been excluded from or denied the benefits of, or subjected to discrimination caused by the, the Tehama County Transit Agency, or TRAX, please contact the Tehama County Title VI Administrator or the Federal Transit Administration (FTA) Office of Civil Rights. Federal and State law requires complaints to be filed within one-hundred and eighty (180) calendar days of the last alleged incident.
